

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA
CRADLE OF LIBERTY COUNCIL

2020 National Outstanding Eagle Scout Award Recipients

Barry Kauffmann

Council Activities Chair and Baden Powell District Vice Chair

Barry earned the rank of Eagle Scout in the Philadelphia Council. He has over 50 years of dedicated service leading at the unit, district, and council level. Barry has created new events, while working to keep past events going strong, and can always be counted on to make things happen. Outside of Scouting, Barry has also spent his life dedicated to his synagogue, where he served as President, and a member of the board. He provides a great deal of service and assistance to many other Jewish organizations, where, just like in Scouting, he is willing to get his hands dirty, and ready to pitch in wherever help is needed.

Joseph F. Kobulsky, Jr.

Council Executive Board, Executive Committee Member, and Council Risk Management Chair

Joe earned the rank of Eagle Scout in the Valley Forge Council. In addition to 15 years of dedicated unit service, he serves as the Chair of the Cradle of Liberty Council Enterprise Risk Management Committee. Recently, Joe played an integral part in the 2020 Gala securing over $35,000 in funding from the Satell Institute. His community service also includes the Board of the Institute of Internal Auditors.

Karlis Ulmanis

Council Investment Committee Chair and Advancement/Recognition Committee Member

Karlis earned the rank of Eagle Scout in the Northwest Suburban Council. He has spent over 20 years of dedicated service leading at the unit, district, and council level. He has utilized his skills from a successful career in finance to help manage the Council's Investment Committee and Endowment Fund, while also providing leadership to the Council advancement and recognition efforts. He has been a part of contingents to Philmont and the National Jamboree. His service to his church has also been significant, lending his financial expertise, as well as serving as a volunteer with several other non-profits including Good Works, Inc.
